6th International Conference on Global Financial and Business Environment

(6th ICGFBE 2025)

12-13 December 2025

NDIM, New Delhi, India

Dear Academicians/Scholars,

We are delighted to announce the Sixth Edition of the International Conference on Global Financial and Business Environment (ICGFBE 2025), which will be held on December 12–13, 2025. This year's theme, "Finance and Business on ESG for Sustainability," reflects the growing urgency to integrate environmental, social, and governance (ESG) principles into mainstream financial and business strategies. Organized by New Delhi Institute of Management (NDIM), ICGFBE 2025 aspires to bring together leading academicians, policymakers, industry professionals, researchers, and doctoral scholars from around the globe to deliberate on the dynamic and evolving global business and financial environment. Furthermore, we have associated with some indexed journals (ABDC/Scopus/WoS/ABS) to extend publication opportunities to the authors subject to positive peer review processes. We encourage you to submit high-quality papers to this conference and make the most of this opportunity. The primary objective of the Sixth Edition of ICGFBE 2025 is to provide a platform for global participants to share their ideas and experiences in person with peers joining from different parts of the world. In addition, this gathering will help the delegates to establish research or business relations as well as to find international linkage for future collaborations in their career path.

We hope that ICGFBE2025 outcome will lead to significant contributions to the knowledge base in these up-to-date scientific fields in scope. Global markets are changing rapidly and are becoming more interdependent in all its aspects. This interdependence of the markets and the pace of changes that are taking place globally requires engagement with the global community of experts.

Similarly, the corporate reliance and dependence on global financial markets in the emerging economies have increased significantly in view of the cost and risk consciousness of variety of financial products and financing options available in the markets. The challenges too are manifold in terms of regulatory aspects, expanded opportunities and changing role of financial institutions. With the rapid development in business and technology, enterprises are now facing escalating competitions and vague opportunities. The capital markets across the globe have gone under radical changes and received much focus since the financial crisis in 2008. In the recent times the commodity markets and other derivatives such as carbon emissions and the crypto currency markets have also emerged and are being traded globally. Recently, global markets have experienced unprecedented volatility.

The vitality of the markets is crucial for sustainable economic growth and efficient allocation of scarce resources. The relevance of this conference has increased many fold because of the Covid, the valuation of companies and financial assets is a great concern for all of us. Other fields within the social sciences are also undergoing significant transformations.

Theme Rationale:

The integration of ESG factors in financial and business decision-making has become a global imperative. In the wake of climate change, social inequality, and corporate accountability demands, sustainability is no longer a choice but a necessity. The conference will focus on the interplay between:

- Financial innovation and ESG compliance
- Sustainable development goals (SDGs) and corporate governance
- Technology, AI, and digital transformation in sustainable finance
- Global regulatory challenges and opportunities
- Post-pandemic financial resilience
- Geopolitical conflicts and their impact on global markets
- Sustainable Marketing and Responsible Consumer Engagement
- Reshaping Human Capital for Responsible Business Futures
- Sustainability in Business Operations and Supply Chains

This conference is especially relevant in the post-COVID era, which has exposed vulnerabilities in global economies, supply chains, and capital markets. Emerging issues such as the Russia–Ukraine conflict, increasing interest rates by central banks, and growing inflationary pressures have created uncertainties that require renewed academic and policy attention.

Key Highlights:

- Renowned International Speakers: Eminent scholars, policymakers, and industry leaders from globally reputed institutions have agreed to be keynote and plenary speakers. These include authors of landmark research in sustainable finance, pioneers in ESG integration, and influencers in global policy-making. Their insights will offer deep intellectual value and practical perspectives to all participants.
- Expert Panel Discussions & Workshops: Panels will cover emerging themes such as:
 - ♦ Climate Finance and Green Bonds
 - ♦ Corporate ESG Reporting & Disclosure
 - ♦ Blockchain & Fintech in ESG
 - ♦ Carbon Trading and Global Emissions Markets
 - ♦ Crisis Management and Business Continuity Post-COVID
- Networking & Collaboration Opportunities: Meet and connect with peers from across continents, enabling academic and business partnerships, joint research proposals, student exchange initiatives, and cross-border funding opportunities.

Need for this conference:

With the rapidly changing global environment there is a need for these robust discussions on these issues. India has been lagging in academic debate and international conferences and with its emerging position in the global economic environment Indian institutions are in a unique position to host conferences of this nature. It is also our civic and academic responsibility to host such gatherings to further the cause of research.

Global Context:

The post-pandemic era, combined with rising geopolitical tensions and rapid digitalization, has reshaped global markets. New and unconventional financial instruments such as crypto-assets, carbon credits, and ESG-linked securities are gaining traction. Meanwhile, regulators and central banks across the world are struggling to strike a balance between market liberalization and financial prudence. At this crucial juncture, the role of academia and policy research is more critical than ever. ICGFBE 2025 aims to serve as a think tank for dialogue, innovation, and actionable research that can guide corporate strategy and public policy for a sustainable future.
